2023 Annual Federal Mining Claims Filing Requirements

By Ruby Miner

General Guidelines for Your 2023 Annual Mining Claims Filings

by Ruby Miner

WHO

Anyone who has any ACTIVE lode claims, placer claims, mill sites or tunnel sites on file with the BLM who wants to keep those claims after August 31, 2023.

WHAT and WHEN

You may be required to file and/or record one or more of these documents.

Small Miners Waiver
Annual Maintenance Fee
Affidavit of Assessment Work
Intention to Hold

Small Miners

If you and ALL related parties control 10 or fewer mining claims, you may file a Small Miners Waiver and waive the 2023 federal mining year Annual Maintenance Fee. This must be done on or before August 31, 2023.

If you filed a Small Miners Waiver in 2022, you must also record an Affidavit of Assessment Work into the County Recorder's office in the county where the claim is located AND file a copy with the BLM on or before December 30, 2023.

If you have Mill Sites and/or Tunnel Sites they do not require assessment work. You will need to record an Intention to Hold with the appropriate County Recorder AND file a copy with the BLM on or before December 30, 2023.

Other Miners

All other claim holders must pay on or before August 31, 2023 an Annual Maintenance Fee with the BLM of $165 for each Lode Claim, Mill Site and Tunnel Site. For each Placer Claim you must pay $165 for each 20 acres and portion thereof. For example; a placer claim that is the size of a standard lode claim (600 ft x 1500 ft) is 20.66 acres and will require a payment of $330.

If you are paying an Annual Maintenance Fee you are required to record an Intention to Hold at the County Recorder's office on your existing claims each year. The BLM can not declare your claims as "abandoned" for failure to make this public filing but it is a good idea to do so.

Follow the attached chart to determine what you need to file and to determine how much it will cost you.
